

TV Gets a Facelift: Over-the-Top and On Demand

Have you heard of over-the-top video content? You may not know the term, but odds are you've used it before. Over-the-top refers to video content—like your favorite movies and TV shows—that you receive over the Internet and watch on your computer or television. If you're one of the 80% of Americans who have watched video online, or if you watch any of the one billion videos YouTube streams each day, you've experienced over-the-top content.

The term over-the-top video goes hand-in-hand with On Demand, which refers to video content such as full length television shows and movies that you can download and play immediately, whenever you want it.

Is your household over-the-top ready?

Over-the-top video requires a broadband Internet connection to work. It's a simple equation: the more robust your Internet connection, the better the quality of your over-the-top video quality.

JULIE – Call 811 Before You Dig

Before you start your spring yard projects (for deck building, fencing, landscaping, etc.), Illinois state law requires that you call JULIE (Joint Utility Locating Information for Excavators). JULIE is a free one-call system that tells utilities of your digging or excavating plans.

Call no more than two weeks, but at least 48 hours, before you begin digging (not including weekends and holidays). Utilities will then mark their underground pipes, wires and cables with stakes, flags or paint.
